Adam brings more than a decade of experience to Gallagher's Real Estate and Business Transactions Group, where he represents developers, owners, and equity investors in all stages of the real estate life cycle, from land acquisition through development, financing, construction, leasing and disposition. His significant experience representing borrowers in all manner of financing transactions, including construction, agency and permanent loans, tax increment financing and new markets, historic and low income housing tax credits, enables him to readily meet the needs of clients. Additionally, Adam's practice includes the representation of owners and developers in the formation of business entities, commercial condominium regimes and residential condominium and homeowner associations.

Adam's previous experience includes serving as Deputy General Counsel at The Cordish Companies and working for the Maryland Department of Natural Resources acquiring conservation lands on behalf of the State. He has been recognized by Best Lawyers® and as a Maryland Super Lawyers Rising Star, and was recognized by Baltimore Magazine as a Top Lawyer in Real Estate in 2026.
