mmiller@gallagherllp.com

As a paralegal in Gallagher's Litigation practice, Morgan Miller supports attorneys across a wide range of matters, with a focus on commercial litigation and medical malpractice defense. Her responsibilities include analyzing discovery, conducting factual investigations and summarizing findings, reviewing and summarizing medical records, and preparing detailed medical chronologies. Morgan also supports attorneys in the firm's Pro Bono practice, with a focus on immigration matters.

Through her experience at area law firms, Morgan has developed strong critical thinking, organizational, and attention to detail skills, which she brings to her work supporting Gallagher's attorneys and clients.

Beyond Gallagher

Morgan enjoys spending time with her family in Annapolis, hanging out with friends, and visiting her nephews in North Carolina. She is an avid hiker, reader, and cat enthusiast.
