An organized collaborator, Sarah Wenger assists litigation attorneys in helping clients navigate dispute resolution.

As part of Gallagher's multifamily housing team, Sarah drafts Washington, D.C. and Maryland-specific notices, coordinates client communications, prepares and organizes discovery responses, drafts motions and complaints, and oversees the documentation of case files. In addition to her responsibilities within the litigation practice, she also assists with transactional matters related to property management agreements.

Prior to joining Gallagher, Sarah performed settlement work for an area title company, ensuring a smooth settlement process through document and customer relationship management.

Sarah graduated from Cabrini University with a Master of Art's degree in criminology in 2021 and a bachelor of arts degree in criminology and sociology in 2020. At Cabrini, she was a member of the women's lacrosse and field hockey teams; Alpha Kappa Delta (International Sociology Honor Society); and Alpha Phi Sigma (International Criminal Justice Honor Society.)

Beyond Gallagher

When she is not assisting attorneys and clients, Sarah looks forward to visiting the beach and working on a house she recently purchased with her partner.
