As a paralegal in Gallagher's Litigation practice, Tony Jerome provides essential support to attorneys handling complex commercial disputes and medical malpractice claims. His role includes trial preparation, review and analysis of discovery responses, preparing subpoena packages, and facilitating case documentation.

Prior to joining the firm, Tony served as a paralegal at the U.S. Attorney's Office where he worked on cases involving racketeering, firearms, and narcotics offenses. His background includes multiple federal trials, production of discovery, and legal research.

Beyond Gallagher

When he is not assisting with client requests or filings, Tony enjoys spending time with his family, golfing, and watching his favorite sports teams play.
