As the Facilities Manager at Gallagher, Vendel Grunitzky ensures the smooth daily operations of the building through managing the firm's office space, overseeing maintenance, repairs, and construction projects, coordinating with vendors, and ensuring compliance with health, safety, and regulatory standards. He also assists with the logistics for firm events and oversees a team that performs purchasing and file management.

Prior to assuming the Facilities Manager role, Vendel supported the firm over the years as a Conflicts and Records Coordinator, litigation paralegal, and Records Manager. He considers Gallagher "home".

Beyond Gallagher

Vendel attended Baltimore City College H.S. right here in Baltimore. He has two young daughters who are both active in track & field and dance. In his spare time, Vendel enjoys working out, reading, spending time with his Cane Corso (Siren), listening to podcasts, watching Yankees baseball, and attending Ravens road games with his childhood friends.
