

Gallagher LLP

Tax Exempt Organizations

For more than 50 years, we've served the legal needs of tax-exempt organizations in the housing development, education, health care, human services, and religious sectors. We give our clients timely, practical advice that lets them focus on what matters most: accomplishing their missions.

Our focus areas include:

- Corporate organization and governance;
- Federal and state tax planning and compliance;
- Business combinations and joint ventures;
- Real estate transactions, including land use, construction, and financing arrangements;
- Tax-exempt bond financing;
- Intellectual property;
- Employment, including executive compensation and benefits;
- Fundraising and development; and
- Litigation.
